How Does Hong Kong's Economy Look Under John Lee?

On 1st July, John Lee will succeed Carrie Lam as Hong Kong's new Chief Executive. In his election manifesto, the former secretary for security made clear his ambition to

During this webinar, Oxford Economics' Lead Economist Tommy Wu will share his views on the short and long-term economic challenges that John Lee's administration will be facing. These include near-term themes such as the COVID recovery, growth slowdown on the mainland and US Fed Hikes, as well as longer-term themes such as GBA integration, US-China decoupling, and more.
